

CARO Working – Fall Class

Beginner / intermediate / Refresher

CARO Working is an independent titling stream within which features a series of exercises derived from a variety of dog sports including obedience, agility, and scent work. This sport has been developed with everyone and every dog in mind.

Working exercises demonstrate the incredible versatility of dogs, relying on a range of natural canine instincts, precise training and the partnership between dog and handler. This sport is intended to foster positive relationships between dogs and handlers, based on trust and respect. A positive attitude and enjoyment of the handler/dog connection is the priority.

The working classes are a great venue for those who desire an activity that is fun and challenging at any level, and for dogs of all types and ages, with or without physical limitations.

- Prerequisites: dogs are required to work along with other dogs. A leash may be used if needed. Dogs should have basic skills such as a recall, sit, down, stay, and be crated while waiting their turn.
- A few inexpensive purchases of items that your dog will need to fetch by name or smell, and a thrown object are all you need for class.
- Most of the skills will need to be practiced at home.

DATES & TIMES: Fridays August 15, 22, and 29 7:00 to 8:00 pm
